

Estimator

Walton Construction, Inc. – San Dimas, CA

About the Company

Walton Construction, Inc. is a family owned general contracting company that specializes in mixed-use Multi-Family and Senior Housing developments. We collaborate with non-profit clients on new and rehabilitation projects for family, senior and special needs residents. We are seeking an experienced, self-motivated individual ready to learn and grow with our organization.

Responsibilities/Qualifications

- Reading, analyzing, interpreting and generally understanding contracts, plans, and specifications
- Execute material take-offs
- Obtain materials pricing
- Maintain quality service by following organization standards
- Prepare estimates at different levels of completion (conceptual, Schematic, DD, CD, etc.)
- Compare and analyze competitive subcontractor and supplier bids.
- Experience in the Affordable Housing Market

Job Type: Full-time

Preferred education:

- Bachelor's degree in Construction Management

Qualifications:

- Experience in the Affordable Housing Market preferred
- Experience in Construction Estimating
- Ability to collaborate and work as part of a team
- Demonstrate proficiency in M/S Word, Excel, Bluebeam and other data base applications
- Professional in appearance and speech
- Must be able to travel to job sites